SHANGHAI TANG WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL POLO TOURNAMENT SINGAPORE POLO CLUB 2 – 6 SEPTEMBER 2009

Singapore, Friday 4 September 2009 – Day Two of the Shanghai Tang Women's International Polo tournament was filled with action and excitement at the Mount Pleasant grounds. The 4-chukka semi-final match between Amarula and China Blue was tied 4-4 at the end of the third chukka, with both teams playing a strong defensive strategy. The team captain for China Blue, Emma Calder of New Zealand (1-goal handicap) had an unfortunate fall from her pony and suffered a fractured collarbone, which will keep her out of action for the remainder of the tournament. Kirsty Readhead from Australia (1-goal handicap), the team captain for The Margaritas, was asked to stand-in for Emma Calder, and with her assistance, China Blue advanced to the Silver League Final 6-4. Much credit must be given to Emma Calder as she was responsible for four of the six goals scored by China Blue, with team-mates Melissa Tiernan (-2 goal handicap) and Kirsty Readhead scoring one goal each.

The Shanghai Tang Women's International Polo 2009 tournament continues with the second Silver League Semi-final today – Friday 4 September at 5pm, featuring The Margaritas against Pink Champagne. The winning team will advance to the Silver League Final against China Blue; to be played tomorrow – Saturday 5 September.

The highlight of the tournament will be the Gold Cup match (0 to 2 goals handicap) which is scheduled on Sunday 6 September with representative teams from Singapore* and HPC England*. The Singapore Polo Club is honoured to have Mr. S Iswaran, Senior Minister of State for Trade & Industry and Education as the Guest-of-Honour at the Gold Cup match. The schedule of events also includes a fashion showcase by Shanghai Tang, featuring their 2009 Autumn/Winter collection, Kaleidoscope. A Ladies Best Hat Award will also be presented, with the winner receiving a unique Shanghai Tang Duffle Bag valued at over S$400.

The Singapore Polo Club welcomes all to visit the Club grounds to witness the Shanghai Tang Women's International Polo tournament. Admission is free and open to the public. For more details, please contact the Singapore Polo Club at 6854 3999 or visit www.singaporepoloclub.org.

Please note that the participating teams are not officially sanctioned national teams, but simply reflect the origin of the participating polo professionals.*

About the Singapore Polo Club

The Singapore Polo Club, established in 1886, strives to promote the sport of polo and equestrian activities in Singapore and beyond. Its history dates back to the colonial period and the Club has always had an illustrious membership. Several members of the British Royal family have at various times played polo at the Club, which is set in lush, tropical grounds on Mount Pleasant Road. Over the years, the Singapore Polo Club has hosted many prestigious polo tournaments, many of which are attended by royalty, dignitaries, socialites and prominent business men and women. The Club hopes to grow the sport of polo and encourage more local Singaporeans to play “The Sport of Kings.” This is significant as polo was recognised as a medal sport at the 2007 SEA Games, in Bangkok, Thailand, with Singapore winning a silver medal at this event.
