Tim Zee
Honorary Treasurer

Tim is from Dallas, Texas, where he learned to play polo in his teens and later in Argentina and England in his early twenties. He hung up his mallet over the last two decades to focus on his career and family before picking up a mallet again in 2018.

Tim is a private equity investor and Managing Director of PAG Asia Capital focusing on buyouts and structured investments across Asia Pacific with over US$35 billion of assets under management.

Jane started riding horses at a young age, and has competed in dressage, jumping and showing in Singapore and the UK. A few years ago, she started to play polo at the Club and has now switched her dressage horse for three polo ponies.

Having owned many competition horses, Jane has years of equestrian experience and a fast-growing polo network, having played in New Zealand, Australia, USA, Argentina, China and the Philippines.

Jane Drummond
Committee Member

Jane works for a Fortune 500 company, in the financial services sector, and has a background in sales and multi-national client service. Her family are also active members of the club, in riding, polo, tennis and social activities. She hopes to combine her sales expertise, with her passion for horses, to serve on the Committee and represent the interests of the members.
