Dear Members,

Happy 2018! The New Year spells excitement for us in many areas in terms of our line-up of Polo, Riding & Lifestyle events and more importantly the Club's redevelopment and upgrading which will be undertaken by award-winning architect Ernesto Bedmar from Bedmar & Shi, a leading Singapore-based design firm.

As the Club turns 132 this year, it is important to preserve the rich heritage and long-standing traditions which has seen us through the years whilst keeping up with the ever-changing landscape of the economy.

The Club hasn't seen an upgrade in the last 12 years and as such, one of the key highlights to look out for this year is the first phase of our upgrading which will be explained in depth in the next few pages. Members will receive progress updates through email announcements, the Club's Facebook & Instagram, Club magazine and a dedicated section on the Singapore Polo Club website which will include details and contents of the plans, renderings, timeline, FAQ's and a feedback form.

Apart from changes in the aesthetics of the Club, a few other revamps will also be unveiled in time to come, and all this is part of the Club's plan to retain and expand our Membership.

2017 has been a very fulfilling year for the Club in terms of our finances despite the government's new jackpot regulations. My gratitude goes out to our kind sponsors for their generous support. We look forward to building more lasting and memorable partnerships with each and every one of our sponsors.

The Riding Section has made significant improvements from 2015. We have new instructors on-board which will allow us to expand what we can offer in terms of more riding lessons and riding social activities. In addition, members can look forward to more riding clinics, children's rides and better Pony Club experience this year.

The Polo Calendar promises another engaging year with the combination of adrenaline-pumping polo action and a series of upbeat lifestyle parties. With international players gracing the tournaments, I hope you will be intrigued to enjoy these tournaments. Beyond Polo and Riding, our social members can look forward to more frequent and engaging lifestyle activities such as Social Tennis, Themed Parties, Cocktail & Networking Nights to name a few. Although Polo & Riding is at the forefront of the Club, a range of social activities is also our priority and it is on the calendar this year so do keep a lookout for these activities.

There is so much to look forward at the Club this year and I would like to invite you and your loved ones to the Club more often.

With the Lunar New Year approaching soon, I wish you and your family a prosperous year ahead filled with bountiful blessings.

Sincerely yours,
Satinder Garcha
President of the Season, the Gold Cup for the

Dear Members,

With the festive season just over, the new year will see exciting times for the Club in 2018 with a number of initiatives aimed at creating a happening, vibrant and fun Club. The number of lifestyle activities and events is set to increase, and reach out to a wider age group and audience.

Our first ever Members' Networking Night was a great success with more than 40 participants sharing light moments, new friendships and connectivity. The event received great reviews from many of the Members and participants and is set to be a mainstay in the Club's annual calendar of events. Our next Networking Night will be on Friday 23 February where a grand "Lo Hei" will be tossed in celebration of the Lunar New Year. Participants can expect to see our dynamic riding team showcasing their show-jumping skills while polo professional Sattar and our team of polo players will demonstrate their tent-pegging skills to the delight of everyone under the stars. Participants will also get an opportunity to pat the horses, and get a feel of what it's like in the exciting life of our riders and polo players.

As part of our efforts to introduce polo and riding to the community, and also to become more responsible corporate citizens, the Club through its Outreach Program has had a number of initiatives planned in support of the less fortunate, and to charitable homes. Outreach activities and events are expected to grow in numbers, and Members can also look forward to SPC's first Polo Charity Tournament 2018 to raise funds for deserving beneficiaries. Members are invited to participate, and do their part for this meaningful event which is scheduled some time in May or June this year.

Over at Riding, Members will enjoy our string of new horses at the riding school. The Riding School will be renamed to the SPC Riding Academy with the objective to make both riding and polo available to juniors and beginners through our customised programmes. One of the Academy's objectives is to also introduce the "fun" element into riding and polo for the juniors and to create a community for both riding and polo juniors through the introduction of lessons, games, events and activities. There will also be a contest to name the "junior academy" so that it projects a fun, lively and exciting section for our juniors.

Members are fully encouraged to take part in the many exciting events and activities coming your way this year. The National Dressage Championships is scheduled to be held in May 2018. This year will see many exciting activities and events in support of this tournament. In addition, as part of the Outreach's initiatives, the Academy will also be supporting equine therapy for HCSA Community Services. Equine therapy will also be made available to Members. Please stay tuned as we share more information and updates over the coming weeks.

The Club has also created an additional page on our website, with the proposed redevelopment of the Club to keep you updated on the progress, and give Member's an opportunity to provide feedback and comments on this landmark project for our Club.

As always, we endeavour to do our very best and with your understanding and support, look forward to serving you even better this year!

Here's to a great year ahead for one and all!

Best Regards,
Sylvan Braberry

At the Extraordinary General Meeting held on 15 February 2017, a majority of the members present voted in favour of the proposed $6 million Club redevelopment works.

Our Club has not seen an upgrade in the last 12 years, and in order to retain and expand our membership base and develop new revenue streams, the clubhouse has to be lifted to a new level in line with current market standards befitting the Singapore Polo Club.

After a rigorous tender and evaluation process, we are pleased to appoint award-winning architect Ernesto Bedmar principle and founder of Bedmar & Shi for the design and procurement of works for this redevelopment project.

The works will take 18 to 24 months to complete and will be phased in three stages.

In order to keep all members updated on our progress, we will share regular updates via:

- email announcements
- letters sent to your postal address
- the Singapore Polo Club website, which will have details and content including plans, renderings, FAQ's, and a feedback form; and
- the Club's Facebook and Instagram pages

In the Club's foyer we have the community noticeboard already in place which has the architectural plans, renderings, and a Suggestion Box for Members to be able to share feedback and comments.

Additionally, Members may also email management directly to membership@singaporepoloclub.org

We look forward to sharing updates at each stage of the project, and look forward to receiving your support and feedback as we go through this exciting new period for our historic Club.

in memory: Paul von Lissberg

1941- 2017

The unexpected passing of Paul von Lissberg who expired on 26th December 2017, emphasises the drawing to a close of a noteworthy era in the annals of the Singapore Polo Club – an era those of us fortunate enough to have lived through may well recall with vivid memories, yet also with a tinge of regret that times have since changed.

Paul and his late wife, Brede, first joined the Club in the early 1970's. Both were at the time accomplished riders and Paul proceeded to take up polo. During the decades which followed, each in their distinct ways, became almost an institution within the Club.

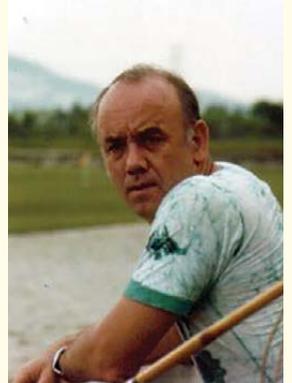

Brede von Lissberg who sadly passed away in February 2005 following a short illness, started off several generations of children in riding at the Singapore Polo Club; she had the gift of imparting in children a lifelong passion for ponies and horses. Although the often gruff, taciturn exterior that Paul presented to the world after his bereavement belied the fact, I believe he never quite reconciled himself to the loss of his wife.

Having held several committee positions at various times, among Paul's most significant contributions to the Club were perhaps while he served as Polo Captain, first from 1975 to 1977 and then again in 1985-86. He left an indelible mark on the office which many – and for very different reasons – would continue to remember for years to come! To those of us who were fortunate enough to get to know him well over the years, Paul was passionate and extremely knowledgeable about all aspects of polo, horses and horsemanship (if he did not know something, he invariably made a determined effort to find out) and was always ready to assist anyone who wished to benefit from such knowledge. As those acquainted with him found out sooner or later, Paul had very rigid views about most things and was in the habit of expressing his opinions forthrightly if not even brusquely; certainly he did not suffer fools gladly. Invariably straightforward and absolutely honest to a fault, he was ever ready to assist anyone who had a genuine question or issue to resolve, especially if it concerned horses and polo. His was indeed a large presence in the history of the Singapore Polo Club, one that spanned several decades and he will be missed.

For very many years he kept a watchful eye over the maintenance of the polo field as well as over the grounds staff, especially the groundsman, Yatim, who had an enormous respect for Paul and, it seemed to me, a genuine affection for him. Senior members will be aware that Paul was the principal driving force behind building the original indoor school at the Club in the 1980's. Possibly fewer members would be aware of Paul's contribution to the Club during the years 2003-06, while the Club was undergoing its major re-development, a significant aspect of which was the construction of the present-day large covered arena. I had turned to Paul for expert assistance with suitable footings for the arena. Typically, he threw himself wholeheartedly into the project and began to thoroughly research the entire complex subject. It was only after we had systematically examined and excluded several competing options, that he came upon the waxed fibre sand product which we eventually decided to import from the UK and install for the first time in Singapore. Remarkably, this waxed footing, has withstood the test of time and sustained heavy usage without having to be renewed for more than a decade now – a testament to Paul's persistence when it came to anything which he considered really important.

Apart from several close friends who reside in many different parts of the world and with whom he kept in touch, Paul von Lissberg leaves behind immediate family in Austria.

October saw the return of the Singapore Polo Club's 16 goal GOLD CUP

Inaugurated in 2016, this second edition of this tournament was once again sponsored by BMW as presenting sponsor. They were joined by PRUDENTIAL who this year have been an important and generous sponsor of polo here.

Despite an especially dense polo calendar during the first half of the 2017 season (largely due to the 2017 South-east Asian Games which took place in August), it is noteworthy that the Club was able to host two significant international tournaments in the second half - the Women's International in late September and following that, the GOLD CUP. Well done to participating members, and a big thank you to the Club's staff, particularly the stable management and to the unsung heroes of all outdoor polo - the groundsmen!

At 16 goals, the SPC's GOLD CUP is certainly the highest level of competitive polo that one gets to watch within the region and perhaps even right across Asia. This year we were fortunate to have representatives of the Cowdray Park Polo Club present in Singapore. Cowdray Park of course stage their own very prestigious Gold Cup event annually and we have been in discussions with them for the past year concerning developing a synergistic, closer relationship between the two Singapore and UK based polo clubs.

Apart from the 16 goal exhibition match which took place on Sunday 29th October, as in the previous edition, the SPC GOLD CUP also comprised a round-robin tournament run over two days amongst three 10-12 goal teams; Veuve Clicquot and KEF. The Prudential team was anchored by New Zealand's international 7 goaler Jean-Paul Clarkin playing alongside SPC pro Sanaullah Khan (2), SPC President Satinder Garcha (2) and Vice President Wee Tiong Han alternating with Club member Cyrille Costes (both playing off 0 goals), making a total of 11 goals. Veuve Clicquot was represented by South Africa's highest ranked player Tom de Bruin (7), Club pro Shane Boyd (2) and Club members Ali Reda (1) and Lawrence Khong (0) adding up to a 10 goal team. Finally, KEF fielded a 12 goal team captained by South African Gareth Evans (6) who played alongside Craig Wilson (6) from New Zealand and Club members Lynly Fong and Ang Ban Tong (both 0 goals). The round-robin matches amongst the three teams were played on Thursday, 26th and Saturday, 28th October with each team playing four two chukka matches against the other two. With their three match wins, Prudential were the tournament winners, while Veuve Clicquot were second with two wins and KEF, winning one match, came third.

The 16 goal four chukka exhibition match had a 15 goal Prudential team (playing in black jerseys) facing off a 14 goal team representing, newcomer to polo sponsorship in Singapore, the Wall Street Journal playing in white. For the exhibition match the visiting New Zealanders and South Africans joined forces respectively. The Prudential team comprised J-P Clarkin and Craig Wilson, joined by Satinder Garcha and Lawrence Khong; while Wall Street Journal had the two South Africans, Tom de Bruin and Gareth Evans alongside Ali Reda and Lynly Fong. As one would expect of such a higher goal match, the polo was open, fast and yet controlled with the professionals on either side rarely giving away a loose ball and almost never missing the slightest opportunity to turn the game in their team's favour. Final score, after a riveting 4 chukkas, Prudential 8 vs. Wall Street Journal 5½. J-P Clarkin was Man of the Match; Caldera owned by the Club was chosen (for the second time this year) as Best Playing Pony.

Beinhorn-Faizullah Cup – Youth Challenge Mini-Tournament

Just one word to describe Youth Polo in SPC this year:
I-N-C-R-E-D-I-B-L-E!!

If anybody had told me, back in November 2016 when we had only a handful of kids playing 2-a-side at the Mt Pleasant Road arena, that only 12 months later we'd have the biggest Youth Polo Programme in Asia, played children's exhibition chukkas and hosted the largest Children Polo Tournament in SPC history, I would have said you were crazy!!!

Yet here we are! We just finished 2017 in spectacular fashion, with a Youth Polo Programme of over 20 children (and not-so-children as Sinclair keeps reminding me!!), playing regular polo and delivering the most amazing kids tournament I've seen (save for the Potrillos Cup in Argentina)

I'm immensely proud of our boys and girls, who battled it out in the Beinhorn-Faizullah Cup over two days. Our special thanks go to long time members Dr Massood Faizullah, and Mr Alston Beinhorn, who donated the Cup to SPC some years ago. Masood, who presented the trophy, had great words of encouragement and inspiration to our young generation of players.

And guess what? The polo was great to watch too!! I can still hear all the mums, dads, grandparents, cheering from the side lines! They were making more noise than the crowd at the Gold Cup!!

The Round Robin tournament featured our young(est) players:

Team White: Jed Gabler, Matias Furlong, Maya Brown, Alex Sorensen, Hugo de Lisle

Team Black: Alice Duiget, Virgile Goldberg, Tom Lowdnes-Cox, Jansheer Singh

Team Red: Lucas Furlong, Oscar Ma, Grace Cariss, Chloe Sultana

Great polo by the younger ones, and after 2 days of intense action Team White came first by the narrowest of margins, just 1 goal! It really could have gone to either way, and they are all already asking for the re-match!

We also held a Youth Exhibition where the older crop of players delivered a real polo match with long runs, spectacular goals and fun, open polo played. Nothing short of the adults' game!

Teams in the Youth Exhibition were:

Team White: Sinclair Bordier, Max Parkhurst, Jed Gabler, Shane Boyd (Coach)

Team Red: Lucas Ertugul, Lucas Furlong, Alice Duiget, Virgile Goldberg, Patrick Furlong (Coach)

It was an unforgettable event for the kids, and a hugely proud moment for their families. A very special event that kids and families will remember for a long time, which helped create the sort of 'family club' we all want. It did bring memories of when I was their age and my father, who also started a polo school in our home town club, took me through my first chukkas with a bunch of other kids. Our mothers helping with the polo kit, some oversized boots and helmets and -if we were lucky- with a stick light enough to hit the ball!

The coaches and I are very happy with how the players have developed this year, and the programme itself has gone from strength to strength. We have a number of people to thank for this, but fundamentally our thanks go to all parents, coaches, grooms, the club, and the sponsors. I look forward to everyone's continuing support next year!

For 2018 we are looking at an even bigger and better programme with more polo, more tournaments, even some international exposure, family tournaments, and who knows? Some much more to do! So watch this space...

I'm very keen to grow the programme with more newcomers and give all children across ages the right time and support to develop their polo skills.

I don't know about you, but I just can't wait!

Merriest Achievements in December

One of the foundations of our mission is to promote and raise the standards of equestrianism for Singapore. In December we invested in three major initiatives that helped us do just that; we invested in our riders, in our staff and in our horses.

For our riders, we invited David Carville back from the UK to pick the show jumping teams that we will send to the UK next year. The weekend itself was a huge success, with a large number of riders at all levels practicing courses and exercises. This time we started with the course riding on Saturday, building a course that could be ridden several different ways. The 30-60 group were superstars! We saw some great riding from Clarinda, Bea, Aayan, Anaaya, Arielle, Nivee, Isabel, Chloe, Zara and Bella. I was so impressed by how much of the feedback from Dave's previous clinics had been put into practice; the team was so much better at creating and keeping a consistent rhythm, riding to the jumps, riding great lines and keeping going, even when the ponies had other ideas!

I was particularly impressed by how much both Isabel and Nivee got out of Sidan – that was some fierce riding! In the 60-80 and 80-1m plus groups, the teams had also improved a lot. Kennedy did some great gymnastics with Cassie and we saw some other terrific combinations in action – Ysabelle on Tyrion, Maddie on both Venice and Dimples, Chiara on Toby and Grace on Tiptoe. Zoe did a great job on different horses, as Percy is currently sadly lame, and Viktoria really helped the lovely Lady to get jumping! Tiffani and Tia did fantastically well with Sugar and Rebell, showing us “the bounciest canter of your life” and some amazing clear lines on Rebell (not always a fan of picking his feet up). Every participant won a bracelet from our anti-bullying campaign NOT ON MY YARD. We will also be partnering with Larkspur Equestrian in the UK to take part in this FEI anti-bullying drive. Please drop by the office and take a bracelet if you would like to support it. It was a great clinic, thank you again Dave for your energy and passion.

I am so excited (and maybe quite jealous) as we get planning for the UK trips. Here are the basics – it's one week for the 30-60 and two for the higher teams. For your time there, you will get a horse or pony to lease, that is effectively yours for your time in the UK. You will get to ride twice a day (jumping, flat and hacking), plus stable management lessons, mucking out, feeding, grooming, turnout and total horse care instruction. We will organise participation in Larkspur shows and local shows, and we will also take you to see some of the highest level jumping at Hickstead and other Grand Prix events. We will also be holding BBQs with the Equestrian Academies affiliated with Larkspur, cross country training if you are interested (including water jumps – a personal panic button moment for many horses and ponies) at one of the many amazing cross country venues that we can hack to, shooting and parents hacking to some of the nearby pubs. It will be intense but amazing. We will likely send the SPC teams with an SPC instructor to ensure the most immersive coaching and instruction takes place. I can't wait!

Our grooms and instructors with the BHS examiners

For our staff, we have invested in two major programs. We are unique in Singapore in that all we would like all of our grooms to be qualified to at least BHS Stage One standard. This year, Edric took the responsibility to train the grooms and I'm happy to report that everyone was able to participate in the classes. Daniel and Laurent did some scary mock exams at various stages. I'm convinced that if you ask any groom at SPC to name all the feed and watering rules, they can do it with their eyes closed! We also wanted to continue to upgrade the instructors' certifications. We are unique in Singapore to do this.

Paul Crago giving pointers to Edric

This year we invited Paul Crago, Head Coach to the British Showjumping Coaches (BSJA) to instruct the whole team to UKCC Level 2. This was an intensive four days of training, with theory, demo riding and a large amount of homework. The poor instructors were completely exhausted by the end, but I think we can all agree that it was totally worthwhile to keep qualifying our instructors with the latest techniques. Once these exams have been completed, all of our instructors will be qualified to teach to 120 jumping (with some further for the more advanced riders). I was struck by how much experience our instructors actually have, in both dressage and jumping. We don't always do a great job at communicating this, but as an example, Daniel and Edric have both ridden and placed at the highest levels of dressage and both have competed in 120+ jumping as well. In my view this makes SPC very well qualified to train our riders and horses to whatever level they would like.

Our grooms looking sharp for their BHS exam!

Riding Instructor Edric with Boa

Finally we invested in three new horses to add to our string in Riding Section. Get ready to welcome the gorgeous Boa, Kane and Rambo. Imagine a mix between Tiptoe and Tyrion and you will see what we were aiming for. I can't wait for them to land – I'm expecting them to be much sought after!

Thank you to the riders, instructors and horses at SPC for putting your heart and soul into these big investments. I think we will all enjoy the efforts!

Founded in 1929, The Pony Club began in England for youth interested in ponies and riding. Today, The Pony Club is an international voluntary youth organisation, represented in over 27 countries, with membership exceeding 110,000, and a starting point for many equestrian athletes.

The Pony Club (Singapore Polo Club)

Held at the Singapore Polo Club, members age 4 to 21 years old participate in weekly un-mounted rallies, where instructions in equitation and horse management are shared in a fun and safe environment.

With 45 riding school ponies & horses to groom, wash, shoe, feed and cuddle, members are sure to get a weekly dose of horse interaction.

Our Aim

To cultivate respect, understanding and trust between our horses and youths, to build confidence in our young equestrians and to promote the highest ideals of sportsmanship – strength of character and self-discipline.

What We Do

The Pony Club Standards of Efficiency Tests, segmented into 8 levels of achievement, beginning with 'E' and culminating with the prestigious 'A', are designed to show members progress of knowledge in different areas of horsemanship. We also organise gymkhanas, annual camps, lectures, film screenings and even Easter and Christmas parties!

Safari of a Lifetime

Have you ever ridden your horse alongside a herd of wild giraffes? Have you ever driven your car across the endless sand dunes of the Namib Desert? Have you ever enjoyed an Oyster and Champaign reception on a lonely beach along the wild Atlantic Coast? Have you ever met the Bushman people and tried to mimic their unusual language using the most difficult to pronounce 'clicks'. Have you ever cantered into the African sunset on a proud Arabian horse followed by a chilled glass of Sauvignon in the Savannah, appropriately called a 'sundowner'? And have you ever looked into the ever so powerful eyes of a grown elephant bull?

Well...there is a reason why the tour we were recently on is called the 'Safari of a Lifetime'. Not only is Namibia one of the most stunning countries on this planet, every moment of this specially developed eight day tour was simply unique.

"We have combined breath-taking safari rides on horseback, cultural encounters and stunning game viewing with X5 off-road driving through some of the most spectacular areas this beautiful country has to offer" Sonja Piontek, former Marketing Director of BMW Asia, explains. "The idea was to create a once-in-a-lifetime experience with unforgettable money-can't buy moments for the participants."

"This entire trip seems to be highlight after highlight" confirms Hana Abdulla, avid member of the Singapore Polo Club with a wide smile on her face. Professor Ossi Köchli, leading Swiss gynaecologist and keen polo player couldn't agree more with Hana and adds that "Obviously, riding horses is great. Being in Namibia is great. But riding horses in Namibia amongst wild giraffes and cantering up high into the Otjihavera Mountains is simply out of this world." Welcome to Africa!

The 'Safari of a Lifetime' starts at the renowned Okapuka Horse Safaris, undoubtedly one of the best stables in this part of the world offering 31 of the finest and best-trained Arabian horses you can imagine. The Scandinavian owner Ingeborg Hernes first came to Namibia 20 odd years ago. Like so many others, she immediately fell in love with this vast and barren country, the abundance of game and the relaxed mindset of its people. Lucky for us, she had the guts to quit her management position back in Europe, move across to Namibia and set up this unique equestrian enterprise. Today Okapuka Horse Safaris, situated on the 10,000 hectares big farm of Okapuka Ranch, 30 minutes from the capital Windhoek, offer a variety of exciting activities for experienced riders from all over the world: 1) Safari Rides in amongst hundreds of wild game across the farm's vast savannah, 2) Mountain Rides high up into the Otjihavera Mountains with rewarding picnics at the lodge's private hunting cabin overlooking the beautiful turquoise water reservoir, 3) Endurance Training and Endurance Races on national and international level for those who feel up to the challenge and last but not least 4) Breeding of Arabian horses and training them.

Training in terms of proper riding style. But also training in terms of stamina...and boy those Arabians of Okapuka Horse Safaris are fit! During the mountain ride for example, there are a number of rather long and rather steep uphill that the horses passionately attack in a flying gallop. They lift their tails (just as Arabians do), set off and run and run and run. It is quite obvious that the horses enjoy these little races up the mountain paths just as much as we, the riders do.

After a few amazing hours in the mountains, encounters with mountain zebras, kudus, giraffes, and a sumptuous picnic lunch at the private cabin by the dam, we make our way back down into the savannah where we are rewarded with a 'sundowner': a cool glass of wine and some snacks while watching the powerful setting sun.

After those great first days at Okapuka, our journey takes us north to Erindi, which is said to be the most luxurious and best game-viewing lodge in Namibia. We certainly won't disagree. As we lean back on the game viewing deck we are taken by the crocks, the hippos, the elephant bull, the zebras, antelopes, hyenas...all within a mere 50-100 meters from where we sit!

To complete our game viewing experience at Erindi Game Reserve, which is also the country's largest private game reserve, we take a safari drive at sunset and one at sunrise. Both times we are very lucky: only a few meters away from our lenses there is a family of lions, three elephants, a herd of giraffes, some rather shy zebras, vultures, hippos, foxes, hyena and many different types of antelope.

Whilst Erindi was all about game, our next lodge is all about a very unique off-road experience and stunning sceneries. We even drive our BMW X5s onto one of the big rock formations the Erongo Mountains are so famous for. Whilst climbing up the massive piece of stone – sometimes with only two wheels on the ground! – Hana exclaims: "This is the most extreme but also the most fun driving I have ever done. It's amazing that it is possible to take a standard SUV into such terrain."

“I think this is the most beautiful country I have ever been to.” acclaimed Singaporean anaesthetist Dr. June Rin adds. I couldn’t agree more and take another zillion photos of the impressive rock boulders, the cars climbing up that barren piece of rock and the breath-taking view.

After another stunning African sunset, we make our way to dinner. This is however not served at the lodge: tonight it is Braai dinner under the clear African milky way – quite an exceptional treat. As during the previous days, we experience so many things on this trip that you would never get to do or see if we did it on our own.

Before we head on, we visit the local Bushman tribe in their ‘settlement’ and learn about their culture, their bizarre language and their century old traditions.

It is very interesting to hear about such a different way of life. I try to remember some of their names, but have to admit that they are quite unpronounceable.

Next stop on our tour is Swakopmund on the Atlantic coast. As this trip is all about unique experiences we will not take the public road though. Instead, we turn onto private land and spend the next two hours driving through the dry, sandy riverbed and canyon-like scenery of the Swakop River – what a blast!

We start the next morning with quite a different program and take a private boat out onto the Atlantic Ocean where a school of dolphins accompanies us for a while, wild pelicans land on our boat, flamingos feed in the shallow water and literally thousands of seals invite us to take great shots of their colony at the far end of Flamingo Point. One of the seals is pretty daring and even jumps right onto our boat! The maritime excursion ends with a totally unexpected Champagne and Oyster reception on a remote strip of beach along the wild Atlantic coast. With all our BMW X5s lined up for us to continue our quest.

If you think driving onto a massive piece of rock or through a 20km dry river bed was extreme, wait for this: we take the cars straight into the never ending dunes of the legendary Namib Desert. “I would have never expected to get a luxury SUV up and down the massive dunes, let alone with so much ease!” Alan from Singapore comments. Again, we are all surprised by the capabilities of the X5, as well as our own guts! Driving in the dunes, surrounded by nothing other than sand, sand and more sand is an amazing but party challenging experience. Some of those dunes are rather high and very steep after all!

On our last day we go back to Okapuka Lodge for one final night and another two beautiful rides. It is nice to be in a familiar place. With familiar people. Riding ‘our horses through the bush and taking in the sheer beauty of this country one last time. Whilst giraffes and antelopes peacefully meander past us we reflect on how special the ‘Safari of a Lifetime’ really was: June from Singapore repeats that Namibia was the most beautiful country she had ever seen. Andy from China comments that this was the best trip he had ever taken. Ossi is still overwhelmed by the opportunity of riding head to head with the giraffes while Hana reckons those gallops up the mountains were among the most fun riding she has ever done.

All in all, this trip has been a truly unique experience: unexpected, extraordinary, at times challenging, certainly more than memorable. One to remember...and one to repeat!

Amanda Osborne's Aquaspin™ Testimonial

Did you have any "fears" before your first Aqua cycling class?

I didn't have any fears at all before joining Aquaspin™, I was just interested in trying out a new type of exercise.

What made you choose to join us in the first place?

I was keen to try something different from the usual gym classes and a group of friends had joined Aquaspin™ so it was a great way to exercise together.

What do you enjoy the most about Aqua cycling?

I really enjoy the variety that Aquaspin™ classes provide as part of my weekly workout. It is just like spin classes in the gym but you have the benefit of keeping cool in the water while listening to music that keeps you pumped and being guided by great instructors who don't allow you to slack off. I find the resistance from the water adds an additional challenge to the exercises as well.

What are the specific benefits you have experienced working out with Aquaspin™?

I find the classes really help with my cardio fitness while also toning as well. I have also recently had a shoulder injury and the physiotherapist encouraged me to continue these classes as they enabled me to keep my shoulder moving in the water which is a lot gentler on the joints but provides resistance at the same time.

I also started the Aqua Power classes which I love as it is like a circuit class in the pool, using various equipment (such as dumbbells for the water) as well as the bikes to train.

Is there anything special you got spinning with us you were not expecting when you first joined?

I found myself improving and becoming fitter with each class and able to push myself harder every time. After doing an Aqua cycling class I am quite energized for the rest of the day. I have also met some lovely people as well.

Would you recommend Aqua cycling to other people?

Absolutely! I think it is a great way to exercise. Alicia and Yannick have a great team of instructors and are always keen to know how you are going with the classes and how they can improve. They are really dedicated to seeing you get the most out of your sessions. If you get Yannick as an instructor - watch out - he does not let you skip a beat.

Members' Networking Night

2nd November 2017

In a first, the Club organised an exclusive Members' Networking Night on 2nd November 2017 for members and their guests to expand their business network through interactions with entrepreneurs, CEOs and Directors while enjoying a fine selection of Wine, Cheese and other light snacks. Mr Wee Tiong Han, the Club's Vice - President together with Mr Tan Hock (Jackpot Convenor), Mr Sylvan Braberry (SPC General Manager) and Mr Leon Chu (Former Club President) hosted our guests by sharing their experiences. The guests were also treated to a special "6 Bar Show Jumping Under the Stars" experience by our Riding School members and instructors.

Keep a lookout for our next Networking Night in 2018!

"The event was well-organised, well-attended yet exclusive enough to allow for quality networking over a good range of drinks and light snacks. Friends also had the opportunity to learn more about horse riding through the horse jumping showcase at the event. I have signed up for horse riding classes as a result of the event and I look forward to attending future events."
